

UK GEOGRAPHY

1. COUNTRIES & CAPITALS OF THE UNITED KINGDOM

United Kingdom—this is the political union between England, Wales, Scotland Northern Ireland. The UK is a sovereign state but each of the nations is a country in its own right.

Great Britain—collective name of England, Scotland and Wales—it does not include Northern Ireland

British Isles— refers to the islands of Great Britain and Ireland—including the Republic of Ireland.

2. MAJOR CITIES IN THE UNITED KINGDOM

Think you know them? Test yourself here...

<https://lizardpoint.com/geography/uk-cities-quiz.php>

London is the UK's biggest city with a population of 9,750,500 million. Birmingham is the second biggest (2,453,700)

UK GEOGRAPHY

3. UPLANDS OF THE UK

The highest mountains:

The UK— Ben Nevis (1,345m)
Wales— Mt Snowdon (1,085m)
England— Scafell Pike (978m)

© www.freeworldmaps.net

Source: <https://www.freeworldmaps.net/>

4. MAJOR RIVERS OF THE UK

The River Severn is the longest river in the UK (220 miles) followed by the River Thames (215 miles)

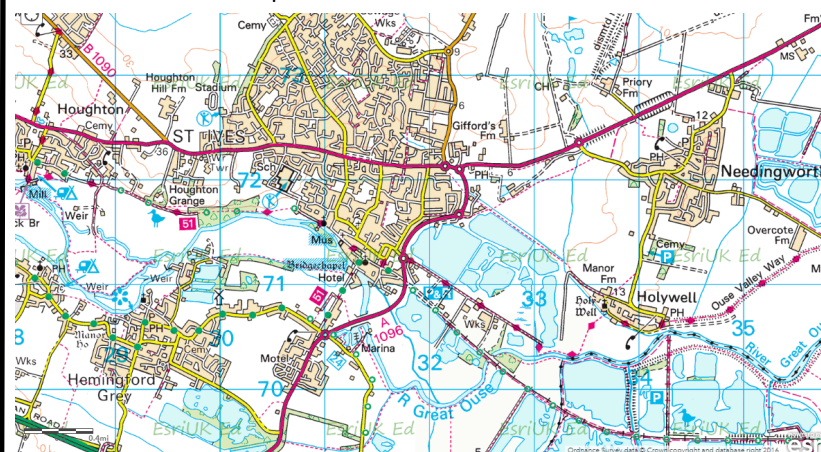

SCHOOLGY

SCAN ME

5. LOCAL AREA—St Ives, Cambridgeshire

St Ives is about 12 miles North West of Cambridge, with excellent road links including the A1 / A14 and M11 in close proximity as well as major rail links with a mainline into London from Huntingdon and only 42 miles from Stansted Airport.

St Ives—grew up on north bank of River Ouse where higher up and away from flood risk.

The area around St Ives is fertile agricultural land and there is a lot of market gardening.

There has been a market in St Ives since 1100